ATTENDANCE

The One Topic of Vital Interest to Lima Fans

DANGER OF LOSING THE EXCELLENT TEAM MUST NOT BE UNDERESTIMATED.

LEADING THE LEAGUE THEY ARE LOW IN CROWDS

MANAGER DUNNIGAN DESIRES FANS TO RALLY FOR A BIG FOURTH.

Interest in the great National game seems apparent on every hand in Lima, but just now the matter of attendance should be uppermost in the minds of the fans.

Lima is in danger of losing its splendid team. This is not an idle fact. It is a business proposition. While the fans have been leading the league, Lima has been the booby town in the matter of attendance. The week-day games have dropped to only a small crowd and while the Columbus owners may say little they will not for long meet a heavy deficit. They are willing to pay a little for the benefit, according as a training ground, but when the crowds drop to a level they will hunt some other town, and there are towns wanting in.

If Lima wants baseball, the fans should rally now. The boys will be home for a nine day schedule tomorrow, four games with Lancaster which means the lead; morning and afternoon of the fourth and Tuesday and Wednesday, Portsmouth for three days and then Newark. The attendance these days may tell the story.

The close of the eighth week of the Ohio State League season sees the clubs drawing closer together in the percentage column, and Marion making a stronger up hill climb. Lima lost percentage rapidly in the past fortnight, Lancaster winning five games in three days and being now on the very heels of the locals who have fallen below the .600 mark. Newark has twice been out of the last position and engaging in a season with Marion, while Mansfield is a close third in the race, with Portsmouth leading in the ball and heading the second division.

The attendance is again a serious matter with some of the State League managers. Though last year was supposed to be one of the hard times attendance was better than when most cities are enjoying all mechanics. The Sunday crowds are generally up to expectations, but the figures are very weak during other days. In many cities dropping below the needed $80 necessary to support teams of the calibre of the Ohio State.

The classy artists of ball being played now by all teams shows there will be some drafts this year. Kaler a big right-hander on the staff of the locals, is due for higher company unless all signs fail. Benz, of Newark, and Deschere of Lancaster, will also bear watching, while Pickett is right now Association timber. If not better. With the ball he has pitched this season Walter Justin, tried out by the St. Louis Americans should also be picked up by some of the big leagues at the end of the present year. He has done some remarkable work.

FIGHTERS

IN ENGLAND HAVE RETIRED FROM THE LUBELIGHT.

DEPARTURE OF SAM LANGFORD FOR BOSTON ENDS THE GAME FOR THE PRESENT.

Special to the Sunday News.
London, July 3.—Boxing is dead in England for the summer at least. With the departure of Sam Langford the colored boxer, for his home in Boston, the English scrappers have retired to their workshops, or sought employment at summer resorts as special police or watchmen, and in some cases taken positions as waiters at the ocean resorts. There is an American fighter in waiter's costume at Coney Island—that is one fighter that is now popular enough to box even a preliminary bout. But here is different. One trouble with the boxing game in England is that the prizes are so small that a boxer can't afford to spend the time necessary to get in proper shape. The manager of boxers here is seldom a man of means and depends almost entirely on his man's earnings to make a living for himself. Again there are few gymnasiums where a man can train properly. Your English athlete does not consider it necessary to put a lot of money in rent or the building of a clubhouse wherein to develop his muscles. He depends largely on his membership in the many Y. M. C. A. gymnasiums, or one cringed up in a barn in the suburbs, where he de-

This is one of the latest pictures of Stanley Ketchel, Michigan pugilist and champion middleweight of the world. It is taken with his father and mother. During his recent visit in Grand Rapids, he insisted on his parents going out with him to San Francisco and staying with him during his training period for his match with Billy Papke in that city tomorrow. Many believe Ketchel will whip big Jack Johnson if he ever gets the black into a ring. Their belief being on the rapid way in which he sent Philadelphia Jack O'Brien to dreamland.

ends altogether on his own judgment to get into shape for a bout. Of course, there are some boxers who have made money in the game and these have their own gymnasiums with experienced trainers. Notable among these are the little fellows who have spent much time in America, where they received the benefits of training quarters not to be found in this country. Thirdly, the English boxer, left to his own devices, seldom diets himself to any extent. He eats anything and everything that pleases his palate. Consequently few of the less experienced go into the ring in the condition to stand a gruelling fight. They have no wind, are too fat, their muscles are flabby, have done no boxing, and the American boxer who has trained systematically, quickly finds his opponent's weak spot, with the result that the Englishman goes to the mat for the count in short order.

Is Losing What Little Popularity He Ever Had

DOESN'T TAKE HIS POSITION IN THE FIGHT WORLD WITH ANY SERIOUSNESS.

HAS COIN FOR CHICKEN, AND HEAD IS TURNED

RACE TRACK DETECTIVES AT GRAVESEND DISCOVER NEW POOL AGENTS' SCHEME.

Special to the Sunday News.

New York, July 3.—If Jack Johnson ever was popular with fight fans he is fast losing his pull. The negro does not take the game seriously, which is probably due to the fact that he has a bit of money stowed away now, and like all people who have had a bunch of coin, the sudden variation to wealth has turned his head. His match with Al Kaufman is still hanging fire and it does not look as if Johnson wants to fight the Californian. He still insists on a 20-round fight in California, but is not adverse to fighting 49 or 45 rounds anywhere else.

Jack Crawford, who is the only man that can pull off successfully a bout of this kind, will not take a chance on a short bout. He is trying to show Johnson that a 20-round battle will not attract a big enough crowd in which to make a killing. Johnson insists on fighting at one of the western night clubs, and Crawford is shivering. There is a chance of a fight taking place in London, William A. Brady, who is interested in a week's carnival to be held at the London Olympia next month, will try to get

with him during his training period for his match with Billy Papke in that city tomorrow. Many believe Ketchel will whip big Jack Johnson if he ever gets the black into a ring. Their belief being on the rapid way in which he sent Philadelphia Jack O'Brien to dreamland.

Billy Papke's brother Ed, deserves a great deal of credit for the way in which he has turned Brother Bill's nose toward success again. After the defeat of Ketchel and Flynn, the Thunderbolt lost heart completely. He announced that he was through, that he never hoped to get back his fighting strength again. Then Brother Ed, stepped in. He planned a careful training session and watched the Kawanee had night and day. He obtained that Jones the former manager had given the boy too much freedom. He has had Papke under lock and key practically at Venice, Los Angeles, and if he can make him win over Ketchel he will believe that it was all luck and that he never really was in him to drop the cover.

The race track detectives at Gravesend have unearthed a new scheme by which pool room agents have been getting information outside of the clubhouse to confederates who have quickly made use of the telephones in the neighborhood. The sleuths saw two men after a race throw small objects over the fence just behind the grandstand. When the trick was repeated after the next race a man was gathered outside of the track on the trolley tracks just as he was in the act of picking up three little rubber balls.

Each ball had a hole in it and contained slabs of paper on which were written the result of the race and the starters in the next event. No arrests were made, but the persons who tried to throw some more balls over the fence after the ensuing race were ejected.

We learn that Joe Walcott has sued a railroad for $10,000 damages in his bill that a flatbedded anaemic brakeman on a passenger train had slipped and otherwise mistreated him.

And this is the same "Barbarians Terror" who fought some of the most gruelling battles in the history of the prize ring. Slipped by a brakeman on a passenger train and seeking redress through the courts. Shades of Peter Jackson, George Pickens and other Seagambian scrappers, but what is the colored brother coming to? Time was when there were few white men who would have slipped Walter any more than they would have attempted to get a thrifty water moccasin. The once mighty appear to be doing a dive in the dust in these deplorable days.

Young Corbett and Johnny Byrne are practically matched to meet before Coffroth's club on July 17. Corbett has started work and already the mean sporting writers are talking about his corset. He paid for it, so why not let him keep it in peace.

Abe Attell is ready to back his brother Monte against any banqueting in the east for $1,000 and Abe will pour the money if one of the competitors around here wants the job. Abe thinks Monte will hold the lightweight championship as long as he holds the featherweight title.

What has become of Mike Dundon? The long wait to know. Mike said she might allow him to play in a few games before the close of the season. Georges Mabe!

SURPRISE

Sprung on Sleepytown by the Trolley Dodgers.

CHARLEY EBBETTS' BUTTING IN POLICY SEEMS TO HAVE BORN GOOD FRUIT.

THE RESULT AT BOSTON IN THE NATIONAL GAME

CAUSES THE FANS ACROSS BROOKLYN BRIDGE TO SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE.

Special Cable to the Sunday News.

New York, July 3.—Holy trinity cars, who struck Brooklyn? What put that tobacco into the boys from the town of rubber plants, baby carriages and Pat McCarran? The way the Dodgers went through the sleepy town aggregation in the first two games since their disastrous western trip was a caution to the oldest fan.

When the Brooklynites arrived at the home end of the bridge they called a messenger boy and sent the toboggan they have been using out west to the poor old Yanks, and the Yanks made good use of it.

And while the Dodgers were making the Quakers look like thirty cents in the vaults of the National City Bank, Charley Ebbetts was being flooded with telegrams and the postoffice had to put on extra carriers to bring him advice that he was butting into Lowley's management too much and must desist. Of course the owner of a ball club is only a figure head. All he has to do is to put up the dollars and his manager will do the rest. Charley should have known better than to advise Lowley that he should strengthen his twirling staff. He shouldn't have announced that he was ready to spend twenty thousand for a pitching staff that would lead the Dodgers somewhere in the first division. He should have given twenty thousand to the fans and let them do it. We are a fan and let take some of that twenty thousand and invest it to better advantage than Ebbetts possibly can.

Charley Ebbetts didn't butt in, and we can prove it. There is no more thoughtful gentleman connected with baseball today than Charley. All he did was try to do his duty. He has been as good as a white washed over time they played. Show us another manager in either of the big leagues that will tore around a ward with adhesive plaster to paste on a skinned shin, and needle and thread to sew up a split finger. If that is butting in, we don't know it.

But speaking of that toboggan, the Yanks have certainly earned the right to use it. Before the season opened we had it dinned into our ears that the Stallions aggregation would never be headed—no, not even nosed—and our disappointment is keen. A week ago the Hilltops wanted warm weather to put the team on their mettle. Now they have it as hot as hot butter and still they lose with a sun frown that is truly pathetic. When will we get a ball team in either of our boroughs that will bring home the bacon?

The poor, misguided baseball writer and follower of the Giants is shrieking in his loudest tones that the Cubs and Pirates are scared into fits every time McGraw's bunch heaves in sight. But don't mind him gentle reader, he is paid for doing that. He even talks of the Giants winning the pennant this year. He quotes "one of the oldest and shrewdest baseball magicians in the west as saying:

"The team we will have to watch is the Giants. You can never tell what McGraw will spring on you."

Is it to laugh—yes, no.

Many nice things were said of George Dovey, late president of the Boston Nationals when he was alive, and since his sudden death he has been mourned as perhaps no other club owner would have been mourned. He played his hard luck as a manager, but was game and never whimpered. This season ill fortune singled him out for a special work. His team went to pieces and the weather cut down his receipts day by day, but he smiled and professed faith in the future. Not only was Mr. Dovey a "good fellow" among his associates, but he was well liked by everybody connected with the game, and actually beloved by his players. He always had a good word for everybody and was such a lover of the game that he knew nearly every player in the league personally. And they all had a good word for him.

He was a man of fine and tender sentiments and the soul of honor. The National league needs more men like Dovey.

Heinie Berger, of the Naps, has something on the ball this year that the batters can't understand. He has made seventy-eight fouls in nine games, a remarkable record.

New York baseball fans are looking for the Phibes to take an awful slump since their defeat at the hands of the Giants. It will have to be an "awful" slump to hurt their straining bunch. The lead they have now will be a hard one to overcome.

It looks now as if good old Hans Wagner will again lead the league in butting this year. Hans is still pounding them out as well as he did five years ago.

It appears that the Cubs will have to do without the services of Joe Tinker for the balance of the season. Joe is in the hospital where an operation was performed for appendicitis, and he is not yet out of danger. Even if Joe does get around it will be so late in the season that he will hardly be able to get into condition for a gruelling wind-up. Tinker's position is being filled by Zimmerman, who recently recovered from a serious illness.

Some baseball stars seem to think that the Boston Americans landed a player that is the equal of Ty Cobb when they got Speaker to play center for the Taylor nine. They give him credit for handling grounders better than any one in the business. Speaker is also a clean hitter and good base runner.

George Van Haltren, the old New York player, recently released by the Sacramento club has been given a position as umpire in the Pacific Coast league.

Will O'Loughlin has his own way of indicating strikes and balls. The New York player, recently released by the Sacramento club has been given a position as umpire in the Pacific Coast league.

right hand downward as if it were a towel and he had to plow through the crowd or bust.

Kid Elberfeld, you will have to cut it out. Of course, we hate to see a nice lad like yourself fined fifty and suspended five days just for trying to swear the countenance of Silk O'Loughlin over the greensward, but Ban Johnson's verdict is right. You may disagree with the umpire's decisions, but don't do it loud enough to be heard at the home plate. A good many players have had the same falling and they all come out second in the long run. Next time Kid, think it over, so to sleep before you start any pugilistic stunts, and when you awake will have forgotten all about it. Rowdiness on the diamond never added to a player's prestige and never raised his salary. Besides it's too hot now.

When batting averages are considered it is a wonder that the Giants are so well up in the race. Spread on the bases is the one thing that is keeping them there for the team ranks last in batting. The hitting has been unusually light, while base running has been well-nigh perfection.

If there is any strength in numbers, Pittsburgh should easily win the pennant this year. Clarke is carrying thirteen pitchers on his staff and don't think the number unlucky.

The Indianapolis team has won more shut-out games this season than any team in the American Association.

Because he has been hitting up to standard Ty Cobb has purchased an automobile to keep from worrying.

Joe Gans writes from Baltimore that there is no truth in the report which stated that he was ill of consumption. The sports who know the great career of "the old master" will certainly be glad to hear that the champion is not numbered among the unfortunate afflicted by that dread disease. A marvelous fighter, it would surely be a sad loss. A great many think he was the most finished fighter that ever held a title. He was as clever as the cleverest as a hard hitter as the hardest and a general who was unsurpassed in ring tactics. We are all glad to hear that Joe has sidestepped ill health, and only hope that he may no longer as he has done since he quit boxing.

Jeffries still refuses to put up a forfeit to fight a match with Johnson. The hellmaker is picking up all kinds of soft money, boxing one-kilometer rounds with Forget. After seeing Jeff spar with his manager, the shops express the opinion that the big fellow's wind has gone, and that he could never recover it. In fact, they agree that Jeff has no idea of fighting again. As long as Jeffries refuses to put up his money, therefore, he cannot expect the sporting public to participate in the warlike decorations prepared by his press agent.

QUARREL OVER GIRL STRATED TROUBLE, RESULTING SERIOUSLY.

SEVERAL POLICEMEN
AND SOLDIERS INJURED

RINGLEADERS OF TROUBLE AND
THE GIRL WERE AR-RESTED.

Special Cable to the Sunday News.

By ROBERT DE SAINT RENÉ.

Paris, July 3.—A scene of savagery in which Apaches figured, occurred at a ball musette on the Boulevard de la Chapelle last night. Dancing was in full swing when two ruffians of the lowest order fell to quarrelling over the favors of an Apache queen. Armed with chairs the men decided to regulate their differences by a Homeric duel. The policemen on duty in the establishment intervened. The men turned upon him and stretched him on the floor. Other policemen arrived. This was the signal for a general melee. The Apaches mustered and attacked the policemen, striking them with their fists and knuckle-dusters. It would have gone hard with the representatives of authority had not three soldiers, hearing the commotion, entered the building and assisted them. The soldiers were kicked and cuffed in turn. Though seriously wounded, they maintained a bold front to the Apaches. The affair would have resulted itself into a scene of massacre had not 15 policemen arrived. Even these reinforcements were attacked the battle lasting for nearly half an hour.

It ended in the arrest of the ringleaders and the girl who had caused the conflict. Several policemen are seriously injured that they will be laid off duty for several weeks. The three soldiers whose courageous conduct has been reported to the Perfect of the Police, had to have their wounds dressed in a drugstore.

A strange story of a union of deceived husbands comes from St. Petersburg. It seems that for some time past the women of Russia have had the reputation of being giddy and frivolous and certain of their husbands, aware of the faults of their better halves, have joined together presumably to comfort one another. The official organ of the place publishes the fact in grave language. A committee has already been formed. It will be pleased to accept members. There is no entrance fee. Names of intending members of the union will be placed on a register free of charge. There is no joke about this association of deceived husbands. It has been founded with a practical object in view that of instructing its members in divorce procedure. The appeal is signed by three members all of whom are Germans, one being a member of the aristocracy. It has immediate results. Since it was issued twelve new members have been obtained.

A piquant story of a motor-car adventure, of which the heroine is a denizen of the world of gallantry is told today. It is not her first motor car adventure. A few months ago she was driving in the Bois de Boulogne, her cavalier being a Russian financier. The car was proceeding at some speed when the door slammed open, and the financier fell on the road.

He lodged a complaint with a police commissary against his fair companion, whom he accused of assault. On her side the young woman declared that the Russian owed her £2,000, when she asked him for the money he had asked to take his leave in this brusque fashion. The matter was the subject of inquiry, which however, led to no result. The young woman has just figured in another automobile adventure. It was night, and she was driving from Enghien. Suddenly the chauffeur found two men standing in the road. They took no notice of the motor horn, and thinking that they were drunk the driver applied his brakes. As the car slowed down two other men appeared. They entered the vehicle and seized its occupants by the throat. The young woman lost consciousness, and when the two men in the road kept watch on the chauffeur their accomplices in the car proceeded to rob their victim of her jewels and money.

Fortunately another car came up at this moment and the four highwaymen took flight.

Excitement was caused in one of the most crowded streets of Paris by the act of a woman, who, in a fit of madness, fired and killed her own daughter in a cab. She had come from the country with her daughter, and had for some weeks given signs of mental aberration. Her husband nation was that she and her daughter were constantly in danger of being attacked by brigands. Her husband had consulted a doctor and was advised to persuade her to enter an asylum as soon as she became violent, but so far mania seemed to be only of a mild character. But these appearances were deceptive. The king secretly procured a revolver, and after she had been driving for some time in the cab she suddenly fired two shots at the head of her daughter who fell backwards, and never recovered consciousness. She was only seventeen years old, and expired during the night at a hospital.

A man who had seen the mother fire the shots, stopped the cab, with the help of several other persons, tried to wrestle the weapon out of her hand. But before he could do so she fired two more shots, one of which struck a boy, aged fourteen, in the arm and wounded him severely. At the police station the woman expressed satisfaction at having as she supposed, saved her daughter from the brigands. She had also, left, it is said, several letters with her husband in which she promised to commit suicide after taking the life of her daughter.

A German who is accused of having carried on a deception agency at Longway, has just been expelled from the city. The action was taken at the request of the Perfect of the Meurthe et Moselle. It is stated that the agency was run on a large scale. The German not only sought to encourage French soldiers to desert, but also took in hand German deserters when they crossed the frontier and made it his business to dissuade them from joining the French Foreign Legion. There is a suspicion that the German's activities were not confined to these duties. He made a point of scraping up acquaintances with all the soldiers and non-commissioned officers who he thought might possess secret information concerning the national defenses. His doings became known to the military authorities in the district, and a sharp watch was kept on him. It was found that he was always the first to know when a German deserter had crossed the frontier. His expulsion was decided upon. Smelling a rat the German came to Paris and took up his abode with a relative in the Rue Ordener. He was found there, and ordered to quit France without delay.

WHITE FLAG
MAY BE DISREGARDED UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

Special Cable to the Sunday News. London, July 3.—The Army Council issues a remarkable instruction concerning the use of the white flag in future campaigns in the new field service regulations just published. It is stated that the recognition of a white flag in an enemy's position or flag is not obligatory on a commander. It should be displayed in cases where movements of troops or materials are carried out under its protection. It is also considered that the following are not to be regarded as "soldiers" or "clerical" who carry out their mission openly, or for that of the enemy. To this class belong, likewise, individuals sent in balloons, airplanes and aeroplanes to deliver despatches and generally to maintain communication between the various parts of the forces in the field or a territory.

TERM OF HONOR

HAS BECOME WORD "JINGO" IN AUSTRALIA.

Special Cable to the Sunday News.

Sydney, July 3.—Australia has succeeded in taking all the sting out of the term jingo. Adherents of the fallen Ministry who were opposed to the offer of a breadbasket to the Mother country attacked the Imperialists by accusing them of jingoism. The Imperialists defended themselves by saying that they preferred a jingo policy to a jingo policy. The contrast so caught popular fancy that it spread quickly through all the States and Australians are now classified as jingos and jingoes. The jingo, or wild dog, is such a contemptible beast, cunning and a propensity to bite the hand that feeds it being its chief characteristics, that jingo is now regarded as a term of honor.

QUEEN ELEANOR

EMULATED BY LITTLE GIRL WHO SAVED SISTER'S LIFE.

Special Cable to the Sunday News.

Freyston, England, July 3.—There is a little girl in this village who has not forgotten the story of Queen Eleanor of Castile, the heroic queen who saved the queen from her husband's attack when Edward I. was attacked by an assassin on his way back from the Crusades. The little girl, the 12-year-old daughter of a resident named John Hov, has just saved her baby sister's life by following the Queen's example. The baby playing near her father's door, slipped up an adder. She put it to her mouth and when her older sister, lay on a few moments later, she was horrified to see the snake still in the baby's hand. Immediately she flung it aside and cradled it, then sucked the poison from her lips. The little girl is now recovering, and efforts are being made to acknowledge her sister's devotion.

ANSWER ADVERTISEMENTS TO GO ON THE STAGE

AND CONTINENTAL TOURS
OFTEN END DISASTROUSLY
FOR THEM.

Special Cable to the Sunday News.

By RICHARD ABERCORN.

London, July 3.—Par reaching provisions for the purpose of suppressing what is known as the white slave traffic are contained in a bill which is being brought forward by Sir Ivor Herbert and Mr. Vokall. It is believed that one of the channels through which many unwary girls are brought to ruin in the unrestricted enterprise of Sunday employment agents, who attract girls with a genuine desire to go on the stage or the music hall. Those girls are often induced to sign contracts for continental tours which, not infrequently end in failure. The girls are then thrown out of employment in a foreign country, of whose language and ways they know nothing, and become the victims of rouses. The bill proposes that all agents who for reward obtain employment for any girl under 21 years of age otherwise than a domestic servant, shall yearly take out excise licenses for carrying on their business. Penalties will be imposed on agents proved to be acting without such certificates. Applications for licenses must satisfy the constituted authority as to their character, and that they have caused a notice to be exhibited on two successive Sundays on the principal door of the church-chapel of the parish, where they have applied for permission, a notice to the effect that they are seeking power to act as juvenile female employment agents. They will be compelled to keep books in harmony with statutory directions, and the local authority will have power to appoint visitors of either sex to be agents visitors in order to satisfy themselves as to the proper conduct of the business, and examine the books. Any contract entered into by an agent with or on behalf of a girl under 21 years of age shall be null and void, unless the contract is in a language which such girl can understand. Other provisions are equally stringent.

During the past week the work of opening up the ruins of the great Roman camp at Caerwys, Montgomeryshire, has been continued under the helpful direction of Prof. Bosanquet, of the University Liverpool. Since cutting into the rampart of clay and opening up the macadamised road which leads into the camp from the southwest, the work has come across the foundation of a large storeroom in which the Romans kept their perishable provisions. The fact that no mortar was employed points to a hurried and forced labour. During the first winter, when threatened by the natives the Roman invaders had to make their footing good, and the protection of their food supplies was their first consideration. To the west of this building, Prof. Bosanquet has located the foundation of the general staff. Piles of pottery and Roman coins have been found and the paved thoroughfares and drains, together with the flagged pavements leading from the other court, points to the presence of an important building, and alone justifies the expense of labor employed in its discovery.

Having failed in his attempt to sell the Thorney estate to the Board of Agriculture, the Duke of Bedford has now reverted to his original plan and offered each holding to the tenant of it. It is understood that the Duke is prepared to allow a certain proportion of the purchase money to remain on mortgage, if the tenants desire it. It is very doubtful, however, if his grace's offer will be accepted by all or even a majority of his tenants. The knowledge farmer, especially such as have held under such good landlords as the Duke of Bedford, have always shown a curious reluctance to purchase their holdings. Then again, in Great Britain there is no provision for land purchase such as obtains in Ireland, under which the credit of the state is made use of. But the small holders at Thorney may remember that the county council has for them. This has been done in Cambridgeshire with excellent results.

from dawn till dusk where every trooper wears a shirt, and almost every non-commissioned officer has a diamond engagement ring. A detachment of the nursing Yeomanry have pitched their tents there, and with their ambulance wagons their horses, and the stretchers, are hard at work from reveille to lights out rescuing and patching up imaginary wounded men. They are living under regular military conditions, grooming their own horses, managing their own canteen, and taking sentry-go all night. The only concession to drawing room conventionality is the presence of camp servants in black dresses, and white caps. The Nursing Yeomanry wear a working uniform of Phalanx, with forage caps and chin straps and on the arm a red cross. They are all daring horsewomen, and in the pouring rain of yesterday afternoon without great coats, they rode and wheeled and exercised under the orders of their commanding officers, Captain E. C. Baker, with more enthusiasm if less precision, than a regiment of Blues or Lancers. They were in fact far more at home with their horses than were their horses with them for side saddles and flapping skirts were novelties that animals from Salisbury Plain did not understand.

Washington, July 3.—It is apparent that the dog on the tariff bill is approaching its end in the senate. Washington has ceased to be a place of pleasant residence and senators are showing unmistakable signs of irritation and loss of temper. Oratory has become a task for the senators and the nerves of everybody at the capital are in evidence. The call of the mountain and seaside resort becomes more and more insistent as the mercury climbs and what the manufacturers, merchants and consumers have tried in vain to do the weather man will accomplish for them. Another element which is seldom taken into consideration will help the weather man in his efforts to cool the atmosphere along the Potomac. The families of the legislators have something to say and at the head of the household, sweltering under the glare of the midday electric globe of the senate chamber, they say the children must go into the country where they can receive rain from their study of the winter and spring.

There has already been adopted into the tariff bill a modest little foker which will serve to impose a rebate on a pound tax on a large share of the tea coming to this country from Japan.

Students of the tariff schedules assert that it will have the effect of increasing the cost of the better quality of tea by giving importing interests and driving the small importers out of business.

In the tariff schedule was inserted an item imposing a duty of 5 cents on metallic containers, plain or ornamental. Nobody dreamed that this was a means of tax. But the tea importers explain that of recent years the Japanese have been in the habit of putting up their tea in highly ornamented, lacquered containers bearing oriental designs. It is claimed that tea thus packed reaches its destination in much better shape than if packed in tin or wooden containers.

Tea merchants all over the country have discovered the joker and their protests are coming to the capital in baskets. Then representatives and senators are looking into the matter in an effort to learn what can be done. It is probable that the senate will refuse to change the tax but the senators most interested will endeavor to add a proviso that the metallic containers shall only be taxed as metal and not add the tax to the tea which takes a much higher rate.

Members of the house who make it a point to attend every session have become exasperated over the action of many of the members of that body who do not seem to care whether the house is in session or not. Twice during the past week the house was called to order only to be adjourned because of no quorum. Representative Payne is so anxious to have the Porto Rican bill passed and here appears to be no opposition to this measure, but every time the house comes to order Representative Mason of Arkansas objects on the ground of no quorum. Representative Payne has threatened to call the speaker's attention to the matter should there be no quorum today and we may see a spectacle similar to that of the sixtieth congress when Speaker Cannon refused the urgent call to go into the highways and byways of the capital and round up a sufficient number of the members of the house to make a quorum. The sergeant-at-arms did his duty and immediately proceeded to a lawn party being given by Mrs. Roosevelt, where he captured Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania and Nicholas Longworth, who were brought before the bar of the house while detention rounded up enough members so that the house could proceed with a full committee.

Speaker Cannon is a frequent visitor to the senate. He is often seen in the chamber consulting with the members and presumably "cushioning" them out for their slowness in getting rid of the tariff bill. But "Uncle" Joe is interested in the lead, which he promised the folks down Japan was his would stand by in the campaign for tariff. He is also anxious over oil for a tariff on which he personally made a plea on the floor of the house.

That Americans are not the awe-inspiring individuals that people who have never been abroad imagine they are is the opinion of Daniel Healy, a mining engineer, who has just returned from a visit abroad. Mr. Healy says he has shown every courtesy wherever he went but nobody under a false over him just because he was an American. They paid no more attention to a visitor from the United States than Americans give to visitors from foreign countries. Americans are welcomed everywhere because of their reputation as liberal spenders but the people as a rule do not take him nearly as seriously as he takes himself.

Mr. Healy was at Villafraanca when Admiral Sperry's fleet was there. The French people were cordial and sincere in their reception of the American sailors, said Mr. Healy, but they did not think much of the world-girdling fleet of the battleships.

Discussing the new prohibition law of Kansas, Charles S. Painter, who was here last week, said that Attorney General Jackson has started a crusade against the social clubs of the state. The attorney general has ruled that for a man to keep his own liquor in a clubhouse is a violation of the law. According to Mr. Painter, many fraternal associations have maintained a locker system but these have all been put under the ban and hereafter the Elks, Eagles and like clubs will not sell or allow liquor to be brought into the clubhouses. The Topeka club probably the richest club in the state is resisting the attorney general's interpretation of the law and a test case will soon be made.

Many of the towns said Mr. Painter, following the advice of the attorney general are even limiting the amount of beer a man can have shipped to his home from outside the state. Wichita has fixed this limit at one case a week and Leavenworth at one case in every two weeks. Topeka permits two cases a week.

The new law also makes it unlawful for a passenger to drink liquor publicly on trains. Any passenger caught drinking from a bottle is subject to arrest. Conductors and other trainmen are given authority to make arrests. It is reported that some of the through transcontinental trains continue to sell liquor in their buffet and dining cars and the state authorities now have spotted out to get evidence against them.

Boston, Mass., July 3.—The smart set along the north shore was set agog today when it became known that Congressman Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. Longworth had arrived at Mingo Beach for a short stay.

The arrival of the Longworths was unheralded and caused much surprise, and particularly to the younger set. While at Mingo Beach which is within a few miles of the summer capital, they will be the guests of Mrs. Susan Longworth, of Cincinnati.

On Sunday the Longworths will meet President Taft upon his arrival in Boston and will accompany him to Beverly. It is not the purpose of Mrs. Longworth to attend many society functions, as she is desirous of taking a rest.

By Hearst News Service

Moline, Illinois, July 3.—In a sudden squall on the Mississippi river today five men were caught in a skiff, which capsized throwing all of them into the deepest part of the river. Three of the number were drowned.

Alex Peterson, who rescued two of the number was seriously injured. He refracted a broken breast bone and two additional ribs. His condition is considered exceptionally serious and it is believed the death toll will reach four in the accident. The squall came up without the slightest warning and the men were taken entirely unawares. All were residents of Moline.

Aberdeen, S. D., July 3.—J. W. Christie, his wife and daughter Mildred, aged 18, and Michael Roy-maine were killed at Christie's home this afternoon by tramps, the horrible affair stirring the entire community and being one of the most dastardly acts that has ever been perpetrated in this section of the country.

It is believed that the murders were committed for the purpose of robbery, from all early reports and the meagre details that can be secured at the present time from the remote scene of the crime.

Christie, who is a man of considerable wealth, acting as grain buyer for the firm of Van Dusen & Company, a milking concern, answered a call to the rear door of his home early this afternoon and before he could make a sound or utter a word, was shot dead by an unknown person.

The murderers then hurried inside the house again and finding Mrs. Christie and daughter there, together with a Rymaine boy who was visiting there, prepared to fight them, the would-be robbers opened fire on the occupants. Two very first shots took effect and the women fell to the floor at the feet of the murderers. Single handed, the boy in the house took up the fight, but was unable to cope with the intruders, and it was not until after they had killed him and the four dead bodies lay about them in pools of blood.

It is supposed that the men who committed the crime are acquainted to a certain extent with the Christie family and their habits, as it was known by but few that the family kept money in large sums in the house. It is believed that Christie had coin in both gold and silver amounting to several thousand dollars, in his home. Twenty-five separate papers are scouring the surrounding country in hopes of finding the men.

CONDITION

While witnessing the high dive at Hovey Park last night about 11 o'clock, Mrs. Clarence A. Richardson fell to a faint and it was necessary to call the Whites ambulance to remove the victim of the sudden nervous attack to her home where she lies in a serious condition.

Mrs. Richardson is standing with a party of friends near the blaring tank of fire into which the diving athlete and his wife dove. As the man started down to the tank, himself seemingly burning Mrs. Richardson swooned and fell backward into the crowd about the scene, creating considerable excitement. Dr. Hildbrand, who was on the grounds, was called and gave the woman medical attention. She was removed to a refreshment stand near by where she was held until the arrival of the ambulance.

The victim was then removed to her home, 816 south Broadway, where she was reported at an early hour this morning as critically ill.

By United Press

Will Bushy, of Cleveland, arrived in the city last night and proceeding to the Manhattan Hotel shook the hand of Frank Bushy, the well known hackman. Neither knew the other, yet they were brothers who had not seen each other for forty years.

Frank was two years old and Will ten when the two separated and neither when two or three years ago, neither knew that the other was still alive and well. It was then agreed that the remaining members of the family would meet in Lima, Independence Day, 1909, owing to the fact that it fell on Sunday—and accordingly the family is nicely quartered at the two local Bushy homes, awaiting a fine feast and generally enjoyable time that will occur today.

Besides his brother Will, who he has not seen for forty years, Mrs. A. C. Bushy, mother, E. C. Bushy, brother, and Xariffa Bushy, sister, are visiting Frank H. Bushy and wife, of 1224 east North street, and J. C. Bushy, also a brother, living at 4119 south Pine street. The occasion promises to be one not soon forgotten.

Fourth of July celebrating last night and the street was filled with Young America and fire crackers from the 100 for a penny store to the mammoth cannon crackers. Police kept a close watch on the latter and attempted to hold down the explosion of these giant crackers as much as possible. One arrest was made while two accidents were reported.

Joe Maguire was arrested at the corner of Main and Wayne street at 4:45 by officer Grant Macquigg. He was carrying a .25 calibre revolver and the officer alleges was badly frightening every person approached by shooting off the revolver loaded with blank cartridges at close range. Macquigg was released for appearance tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

Frank Spencer was seriously injured on north Main street near Grand avenue, at 10:30 last night when a revolver he was using exploded the full charge of a blank cartridge entering his left hand and badly tearing the flesh. Spencer became angry over the matter and in the action pulled the trigger again, the second charge taking effect, and tearing off the forefinger of the right hand. It was afterwards found on examination of the revolver that the second charge exploded was not a blank but a genuine cartridge. Spencer said he was not aware of this. He was taken to his home on east Grand avenue, and his wounds dressed.

Herbert Wilkins, son of Jefferson Wilkins and wife of west Spring street, was injured by the premature explosion of a large firecracker. The lad is seven years of age and was bending over the cracker when it exploded. His eyes and face were badly injured and burned.

Washington, July 3.—Representatives Taylor and Keifer, of Ohio, saw the president today about the case of E. C. Flickinger, the aged banker of Galion, O., who is serving a seven years' sentence in the Columbus prison for participating in the wrecking of the Gallion National bank several years ago. Flickinger is represented as having only a short time to live.

The department of justice has recommended that Flickinger's sentence be commuted to four years imprisonment which will release him from prison next February. Taylor and Keifer asked that Flickinger be set free now. The president promised to give the matter further consideration.

Said to be Well.

Columbus, July 3.—E. C. Flickinger the Galion, O., banker, who was sent to the penitentiary January 23, 1907, to serve seven and a half years for wrecking the bank there, is said by the prison officials today, to be a healthy man and very active for one of his age. He was 52 years old when he was received. He has the assignment as guard boy for the prison bars and as such is allowed to sleep and eat outside the prison walls.

FRIENDS A DRINK.

Special to The Sunday News.

New York, July 3.—Though officially dead and buried, Arthur Eieger, of Hackensack, N. J., frightened his friends by suddenly appearing among them. He calmly walked into the Hotel and ordered a drink. Eieger has been staying in Hoboken this week. When he picked up his home paper, he was astonished to see his obituary and a brief account of his interment. Eieger lost no time in returning to Hackensack to correct the little mistake.

Earlier in the week the body of a man was found in the river at Hackensack. The next day Albert Coymann identified the remains as those of Arthur Eieger, who had been in his employ.

Eieger wants the coffin in which he was supposed to have been buried, dug up and his name removed from the plate.

Special to The Sunday News.

Canton, July 3.—The Stark county local option campaign is now at fever heat, and considerable ill-feeling is manifested by the opposing forces. Tomorrow there will be a big influx of Anti-Saloon League speakers and next week the wetts will begin a whirlwind speaking campaign.

Rev. W. A. Wasson, an Episcopal rector of Riverside, L. I., will join Rev. A. W. Hart, of the city, on the stump for the wetts next week.

Other speakers announced by the wetts are C. Homer Durand, Co-sponsor, O. J. C. Uphold, of Dayton, O., and Max Hayes, of Cleveland, M. Jewett McGowan, another "liberal" speaker, is booked for Alliance for tonight.

Clarence Barrow, Chicago lawyer, will arrive in Massillon from Cleveland tonight. He will be given a reception in Canton Sunday by members of the Stark county bar.

Superintendent W. V. Marsh, of the Anti-Saloon League, admitted that detectives in the employ of his organization are working in Stark county.

"We have several such men in our service here," he said. "We found their aid necessary to protect our interests."

Meek, Coshocton manufacturer, has been booked by the "drys" to speak in Canton in the closing meeting of the campaign, July 9. The wetts have a photograph of a wagon of the Home Brewing company at the rear of the home of Attorney James A. Rice, a dry advocate, which, it is said, they will throw on a screen at a rally Sunday night. It is claimed the wagon had no business there, but was driven there for the purpose of being photographed in order to bring discredit upon Rice. The latter in an address said he had been a drinking man, but that since taking up the cause of the "drys" he has been an abstainer. "Wets" are carrying, as campaign arguments, orders for beer alleged to have been given to a local brewery by Mr. Rice.

WILL GO TO MARION.SOME CHANGES MADE IN LINE-UP OF THE LOCAL TEAM BY CAPT. DUPUIS.

On next Thursday afternoon the Lima Elks' baseball team will give the Marion Elks a chance to get even for their defeat in this city. The local team, under command of Capt. Dupuis, will leave here at 10:40 o'clock in the morning over the Erie road and will be accompanied by quite a number of rooters. The game will be played in the Elks park and the Marion Elks have decided to contribute the receipts to the Marion Ohio State League team.

Manager Dupuis has made some changes in the line-up of the local team on account of the inability of some of the players to make the trip to Marion and the teams will be organized about as follows:

The Lima party will return to this city about midnight, Thursday night.

INCOME

Tax Vote Is Set As Principal Topic for Monday.SENATE WILL PROCEED WITH WORK, ALTHOUGH MONDAY IS LEGAL HOLIDAY.ELIMINATION OF TEA AND

WHETHER QUESTION WILL THROW OL CO

Washington, July 3.—The income tax question was brought up promptly in the senate today and an agreement was reached to vote at 1 o'clock next Monday afternoon on Senator Brown's resolution providing for the ment to the constitution authorizing the imposition of an income tax.

This agreement is equivalent to a declaration that the senate will proceed with its business on the 5th of July, despite the observance of the holiday everywhere else.

The senators were slow in gathering today, and much time was consumed in securing a quorum. Senator Aldrich was in the seat at the beginning of the session, but most of the leaders of the fight against the corporation tax amendment were so prompt in attendance.

As soon as the routine business was disposed of Mr. Aldrich called up the tariff bill, but before any progress could be made Senator Brown took the floor to press his income tax proposition. He asked that a vote be taken immediately, but encountered opposition from various quarters, Senators McLaughlin being especially antagonistic. After considerable debate the Nebraska senator agreed to postpone action, and he presented the proposition for a vote on Monday. There was no essential objection and the vote was accordingly ordered.

Mr. Brown urged immediate action, especially because, as he said, it should reach the house before the tariff bill is taken back to that body. Senator McLaughlin said he saw no necessity for such an amendment, which would defer the enactment of an income tax law. He thought that probably one-fourth of the states of the union would decline to ratify this action by congress and argued that thereafter when such legislation is sought, the failure of the states to ratify this amendment would be urged as an argument against it.

As soon as this agreement to vote was made, the tariff bill was taken up and Mr. Aldrich presented his maximum and minimum amendment. Mr. Aldrich immediately proceeded to explain the senate's substitute for the original maximum and minimum provision of the bill as it passed the house. The house provided for a specified increase of the rates of duty on numerous articles fixed by the bill in case of the failure of the country from which any given article should come to grant to the imports from the United States the same terms given to imports from the most favored nations.

The senate committee on finance presented a complete substitute providing for an income of two and one-half per cent over the rates of the Payne-Aldrich bill against countries which discriminate against the United States.

The amendment provided that the additional rate should go into effect immediately, unless the president should, after March 31, 1910, issue a proclamation that no such discrimination exists.

The amendment also provides a duty of five cents a pound on coffee and ten cents a pound on tea coming from the countries that discriminate against the products of the United States.

The measure as previously reported from the finance committee was further amended to except the islands of Guam and Tutuila, as well as the Philippines, from its operation.

Stating that he regarded this provision as the most important part of the tariff bill, Mr. Aldrich read a statement showing the maximum and minimum rates of other countries. Since that statement was presented, he said, France had adopted the same rate that varied on an average fifty per cent.

Mr. Daniel criticized the proposed legislation as authorizing the president to make treaties with foreign powers without submitting them to the senate.

"When this amendment is agreed to," he said, "the senate is obligated as a treaty making power on the same as these commercial matters are concerned. It is becoming more and more common to eliminate the ratification from the exercise of its power."

Senators Nelson, Curtis and East speaking in favor of the enactment of the duty on tea and coffee, Mr. Daniel's amendment to the tariff bill was passed by a vote of 45 to 35.

SPEECH

Delivered by Taft at York
Considered Most Significant

PRESIDENT WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH TARIFF LEGISLATION.

DESIRES QUICK PASSAGE OF THE TARIFF BILL.

SENATOR TILLMAN, TOO, IS ANXIOUS TO END DEBATE AND GO HOME.

(By GEORGE WILLIAMSON.)

By Hearst News Service.
Washington, July 3.—In spite of the many reports that President Taft intends to interfere in the framing of the tariff bill, the speech of the President made at York, Pa., recently is regarded by many persons as the most significant utterance, as far as tariff legislation is concerned, of his entire Memorial day trip.

The exact phrase employed by the President has not been made public generally, but people who heard it say it left them with the very distinct impression that Mr. Taft had no idea of interfering with tariff legislation, either when it is in conference or by way of a threat to veto. On the other hand, they are under the impression that he is anxious to see the measure passed as soon as possible and signed and congress sent home for the summer. Those parts of the President's speech which are looked upon as significant of this attitude were to the effect that he is confident that when the weather gets hot enough it will move the senate to more expeditious consideration of the bill, and that after that there will be little delay in getting it passed and signed, and returning business to the highway of progress, without any more obstacles or uncertainties. The tone of the remarks decidedly indicated that the President has no intention of taking any part which will in any way delay the promptest possible disposition of the tariff bill.

Mr. Frank Harrison, of London, who with Mrs. Harrison is paying a visit to relatives in this city, discussing the invasion scare, says that he believes there is more noise than real danger.

He said: "The English people are on excellent terms with the Germans, but there are certain politicians and newspapers who keep up the agitation, and thereby keep the minds of the people unsettled."

"Of course, we cannot understand why Germany is building such a large navy. Her home coast line is very small compared with that of Great Britain, and she has few colonies. Of course, any world power should have a navy large enough to protect her commerce at any time, and that is the only reason why conservative Englishmen can imagine that the Germans want such a large increase in fighting ships."

"England's present government is certainly doomed to defeat in the November elections. The policy followed by them of curtailing expenses in every way and holding the navy back will be the basis upon which the parliamentary fight will be made, and the liberal government is already doomed. England will make any sacrifice to retain the proud title of Mistress of the Seas and you can say for me that Germany will have the time of her life should she attempt to wrest that title from Britannia."

A good story comes from Minnesota about one occasion when Senator Knute Nelson tried to talk against the wind, a baseball game and a horse race at the same time, and failed.

On one occasion he was to deliver an oration at a LeSueur county fair. A stand was placed squarely in front of the grand stand so that he could talk fairly at the audience. The audience was big and the occasion auspicious.

But just as Senator Nelson started a big wind sprang up. It blew from the grand stand and toward him, carrying his voice over into the next township. Pretty soon it lifted a section of the roof off his stand. The horseman got agitated and decided to put on the first race. The ball team got worked up and started their game.

When Senator Nelson was down in the fourth sheet of an hour's address he looked up, saw he was talking to a thousand-air wind, and absolutely nothing. He rolled up his speech, put it in his pocket, quietly climbed down, and lost himself in the crowd.

That evening every politician in the place came around and congratulated him on his able effort. They didn't even know it hadn't come off.

Such a spasm of late to bed and early rising was never known in congress as that which affects the senate just now, since the inauguration of night sessions. Senator Beveridge told the senate the other day that he got up at 6 a. m., and went to bed at 1 a. m. He is not alone in this. Any one going to the senate office building early in the mornings now can see plenty of senators hurrying to the offices for the purpose of either working on the tariff or of getting their correspondence out of the way so they can work on the tariff. Senator Aldrich is no exception. He came to the capital very early and stays very late. The eight-hour law is not observed in the senate these days.

Senator Smoot's Mormon faith is a source of embarrassment to him at times. The other day Senator Gore of Oklahoma called him the "high priest of a high tariff," the appointed apostle of protection, and said his information about matters in controversy must be "some heavenly illumination."

A new stick-pin has made its appearance in Washington. When President Taft was entertained at New Orleans, after his trip to Panama, one of the souvenirs given at the dinner in his honor was a stick-pin which consisted of a miniature golf club and a tiny possum. The members of his party have been wearing them since their return to Washington, and now the jewelers are turning out duplicates.

William H. Nelson of Manila, is here on his annual visit. Speaking of the oriental possessions of the United States, Mr. Nelson said:

"In the Philippines, America is confronted by almost a sealed book. No matter what the United States may do to give the natives all the advantages of a good government, and no matter how much blood and treasure they shall spend in that direction, their efforts will be fruitless. The Filipinos will never exhibit the slightest degree of gratitude or appreciation for anything done them by people of a foreign blood."

"It is so with all orientals. During the insurrection in Egypt in 1882 the foreigners, most abominably abused by the natives who had been saved the lives and furnished medical treatment to the Egyptian poorer classes, and in thousands of instances the property of these physicians were looted and the homes and the property of these physicians were looted by men who had received the tenderest care at the hands of the Europeans."

Senator Tillman has held aloof from the tariff debate for the most part. This is not because of lack of interest, but because his health is such that he doesn't feel warranted in engaging in the rough and tumble of tariff discussion—and the discussion these days is not particularly refreshing and restorative for an invalid. But "Pitchfork Ben" cannot repress himself entirely, even if he knows he will be compelled to take to his bed the next minute.

His speech in the senate the other evening, after a hot day of argument on the cotton schedule, was typical of the Tillman of old. Prefacing his remarks by saying he was tired of the Republican sham battle, he said:

"I earnestly want the senator from Rhode Island to get together his big band of Macedonian phalanx, as I have said, soldered together by lead, stacked together by bees, sugar, riveted together by steel and hooked together with iron, and by all the other villainies in this bill—the combination of greed in the west and in the east and in the middle west, holding this man in line to vote as he is ordered, because we have all seen that the Rhode Island senator is the whole senate on this question."

"I want him to quit. Why does he not press things to a vote, ring down the curtain on the farce and get through and let us go home?" Then Benjamin wound up by telling the Republicans they were not all hypocrites, but the boldest band of buccaners he had ever seen get together.

The suffragettes never get tired. Year after year they have been rebuffed by congress, but they always return wearing their best clothes and smiles. Now they are getting up a monster petition to be presented at the regular session to the National American Woman's Suffrage association is back of the movement for a mammoth petition and already a host of petitions have been obtained.

Everybody is wondering what Senator Lorimer will do on the tariff if he gets a chance before that bill passes the senate. As a member of the house Mr. Lorimer sided with the Cannon organization and it might be expected that his friendship for the speaker would cause him to do likewise when he takes his seat in the senate. But his speech in the Illinois legislature might be taken to indicate that he had become a supporter of revision downward.

The indications are, however, that "Billy" will save himself and his friends from any responsibility by taking himself, not to the woods, but to Europe for a much needed rest.

MAZEPPA

PLEASED THE VISITORS TO THE CASINO FOR TWO WEEKS.

TRAINED ANIMAL PERFORMERS MOST WONDERFUL FEATS

WILL BE SEEN OPENING TODAY AT THE HOVER PARK THEATER.

Speaking of Mazeppa, the most wonderful trained animal in the world, the Toledo-Times has the following special comment:

Because of the sensational work she has done during the week past, Mazeppa, the trained horse that is being shown at Casp's park, has been re-engaged for another week. Beyond any question this horse is the most remarkable educated equine in the world today, and some idea of the care that she receives may be gleaned from the fact that the chief groom who has charge of her, is late of King Edward's private stables of the Court of St. James, London, England. He is accompanied by two of the best and most expert horsemen that could be found in England.

There is really nothing except talking that this animal cannot do. Mazeppa plays tunes with bells just the same as the instrumentalists one sees on vaudeville stages. Not only does she play "Home Sweet Home," pieces that she plays at will.

Her principal big act, however, is the rescue of a baby from a burning home. This act shows the horse coming to her home in the afternoon and laying down of her head for a nap—after she has galloped back the bed clothes, lain down on the bed and then covered herself just as any human being would do. Before she retires she lifts the window shade and sees a woman in a house across the street enter the house with her baby and place it in a cradle after which she, too, lies down. House in flames.

A few moments later the woman's house is seen in flames which unbeknown to the woman are creeping up to the baby. The horse sees the house in flames, jumps out of bed, rushes across the street, batters down the door with its nose and rushes into the burning house. When she reaches the woman's side she awakens her by pushing her off her sofa. Then she picks up the baby in her mouth and runs and bumps out of the front window to the ground in safety.

Mazeppa was educated by her present owner, L. B. Buckenstoe of Columbus, Ohio, who paid an enormous price for her in England, a few months ago. That she is a most humorous animal may be learned from the fact that she is given a bath every morning and then is taken for a three mile walk. After the walk a prepared breakfast is ready and eaten.

Mazeppa was first shown in Havre, France, then at Montague and Reims. At the Paris hippodrome she was a sensation and in the Crystal Palace, London she was tendered an ovation. Other places abroad which saw the animal in her wonderful tricks were the London hippodrome, Leicester Square, Regent's park and St. James hall. In this country she has been shown in the New York hippodrome where she stayed for weeks.

Besides the two big features described Mazeppa does a variety of small acts that are as remarkable as those. For instance, the horse actually can distinguish colors. She can distinguish persons she has met just as well as a human being. In fact it is hard to believe that she is so intelligent. After the patrons of the Casino discovered her talent she was the center of attraction throughout the week.

MINISTERS IN AN AUTO

HELD THE FIRST OF THE SERIES OF MIDSUMMER OPEN MEETINGS.

CROWDS LISTENED WITH ATTENTION THROUGHOUT.

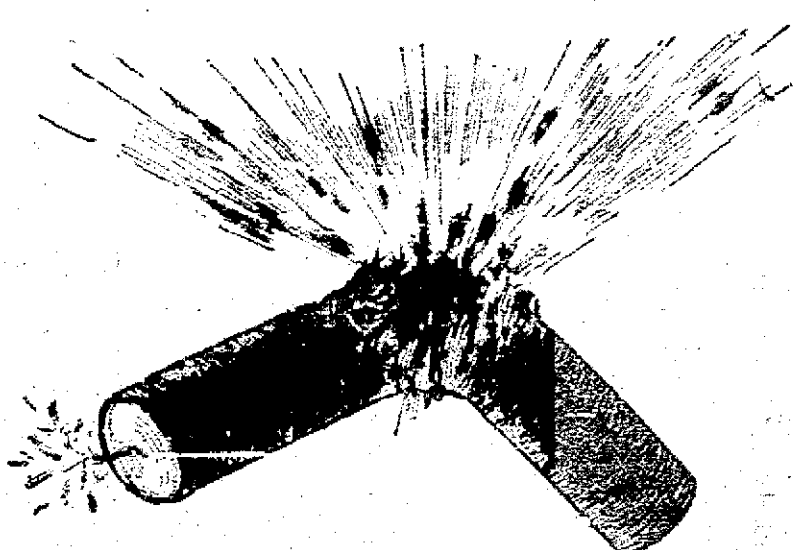

GOOD MUSIC WAS FURNISHED AND THE IDEA PROVED A SUCCESS.

The first of the series of mid-summer open air meetings planned by the Protestant ministers, on the lines of the Salvation Army street gatherings, was held last night.

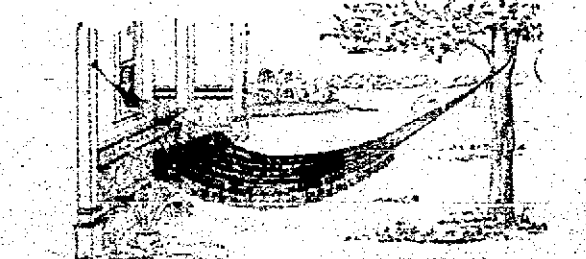

The meeting opened in the south end of the square, the ministers speaking from an auto, kindly loaned them by Banker Gus Kalb. The second meeting was held on the north side of the square, and the third on the opera house corner. The Rev. Relehel, pastor of Olivet Presbyterian church; the Rev. William J. Camborn, pastor of the First Baptist church; and the Rev. George W. Watson, pastor of the Wayne Street Church of Christ, delivered brief addresses, being listened to with rapid attention by big gatherings.

Accompanying the ministers, as master of ceremonies, was Secretary Frank Eberhardt, of the Y. M. C. A., who originated the idea. Also in the auto furnishing excellent music, were Rev. J. G. Thomas, the Rev. E. R. Dunham, of the Second Street Mission; W. A. Conlter, and Haines and Paul Relehel.

The Cigarmakers lost the second game of their series with Portsmouth yesterday after a closely contested battle that went fourteen innings, and are now holding onto first place in the Ohio State League championship race by the narrow margin of seven points. Lancaster played a double header with the Tigers yesterday and lost one of the two games, but that helped the Cigarmakers in their effort to hold onto first place, out of which they have only been for a period of twenty-four hours since the season opened.

Pickett, the old reliable wheelhorse of the Lima team, was on the firing line for the Cigarmakers, and he pitched grand ball. While his were plentiful, he kept them so widely scattered that the Shoemakers could only keep the score tied, one to one, until the last half of the fourteenth inning, when the second Col-dier crossed the rubber and ended the game. There were two errors made behind big Charley and they probably had something to do with the loss of the game.

The Lima team plays at Portsmouth again today and will return home Monday morning. On account of being unable to get train service through to this city in time for a morning game on Monday, the team will play a double header with the Lancaster champions Monday afternoon. The first game will be started at 2 o'clock and, as Lima and Lancaster are now fighting hard for first place, there should be a record breaking holiday crowd at San Felipe Park, Monday afternoon.

The other Saturday results in the Ohio State League were as follows.

Reilly Is Again Leading Locals With the Willow

FOUTZ AND RAY MILLER DROP TO LOW AVERAGES—SYKES STILL KEEPING UP HIS STEADY HITTING, WHILE WELLER
HAS DROPPED OFF—PENNYBAKER AND KALER
THE WINNING TWIRLERS.

The figures tell a rather peculiar story during the ninth week of the Ohio State League season. Among the sluggers Little Reilly has again forced to the front as the real leader, though the Hitting Kid in thirteen games has not the clip for all his team-mates, Kaler having made sixteen bingles for an average of 314. None of the other players are hitting as well as 275, and the team average is but 218. Reilly is first, with Sykes only two points below him, the first sacker having had much trouble in handling Justus and Deconner. Foutz is third in the regular list, while Poutz and Ray Miller have been slipping back, having a hard time to keep from going under 200. Weller is only one point behind Miller, who is but one point under Foutz.

In fielding, R. Miller is the only regular who has escaped without an error, while Foutz is fielding .392, having but one misplay charged against him.

The pitchers have been setting their bumps, Pennybaker being the real leader, having lost but two games, and Kaler next with four losses.
Walter Pickett has not been doing well and has won eight and lost six games, while Walter Miller has won five and lost eight of the games he has played. The figures are interesting and tell the story:

BEST BUNCH

Of Trotters and Pacers Ever Gathered for the Races.

ARE NOW CAMPAIGNING THE
OHIO RACING CIRCUIT EN-ROUTE HERE.

GOSSIP OF THE HORSESAND MEN IN THE BIKE

INTEREST CONTINUES IN THE
BIG LIMA DRIVING PARK MEETING.

The first race meeting in Ohio was held the past week in Hamilton and the coming week two will be held, at Canton and Dayton, both promising much in the way of high class half mile racing. It will be a month more before the fair will be commenced, when the harness horses will be performing at dozens of different points in the Middle States.

The meeting at Hamilton last week demonstrated the fact that the best bunch of trotters and pacers ever seen during the early season are now enroute to this city for the big meeting of the Lima Driving Park company on July 29, 31, 22, and 23. All the favorite drivers will be seen again and behind fleet footed animals. The horses go to Dayton this coming week; then to Springfield and on to Lima. Plans are going forward to make the Lima meeting the best ever held, with uniform $100 purses and $500 features for the half-mile free-for-alls. Every day will see a crowd of three five-hundred events and the program is better arranged than in past years.

Grace Strong, a daughter of Strong Boy 2:11 1/2, owned by James Gillen, Portsmouth, O., is considered a high class pacer.

The first real fast mile of the year was made by Elsie 2:08 1/2, a pacer driven by Frank Hedrick, of Marietta, O., a well known reinsman.

Then another Ohio pacer came along and placed the season's record at 2:07 1/2, the performer being Major Mallow 2:05 1/2 by Box Elder.

The well known breeder D. A.
Hamer, of Lewistown, O., owns a three year old pacer colt by Platte Jr., 2:11 1/2 in Charley Dean's stable that is thought to be sensationally fast. Platte Jr., the sire is owned by "Bop" Ewing the famous pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds.

Harry Snyder is training the noted
Indiana pacer, Dick O'Donnell 2:08 1/2 at the Lima Driving Park and hopes to again get him to the races although the Hoosier sidewheeler that made Montpelier, Ind., famous has for several years failed to get to the races.

Hal Chaffin 2:05 1/2, the fast pacing stallion owned by Cook & Weddle, of Dayton, O., has been a mile close to 2:12 already this season.
He should lower his record
under favorable conditions.

Red Bow, 2:01 1/2 is to be again raced by Dick McMahon and the little mare is said to be in good condition this season, getting over her lameness. She is owned by a gentleman of Dayton, O.

Scott Ross is busy with several head at Toledo, O., and looks to have a good bunch to race this year. Included in his string are: Demarest 2:11 1/2, one of the best of the half mile track trotters last year; Camille
2:24 1/2, Little Peter 2:21 1/2, The Jap 2:17 1/2, Winona West 2:20 1/2 and several green horses.

Ol Elsemann, of Pittsburgh, a well known trainer, has purchased the Green Trotter, The Bellman, by Maple Bells 2:18, of Matt Spillacy, Columbus. He has also purchased the pacing mare, Regina 2:10 1/2 by Rodney C. 2:13 1/2 from John Pinaas of Columbus.

Tom Conner, a successful trainer for many years, is located again at Washington, C. H., this year and has several horses that will do to race, including the voting gelding,
Reuben Reed, 2:16 1/2, by Pinnas.

RECRUIT

From the Ohio State League Gets "His"
at St. Louis.

BACHMAN, THE COLLEGE PITCH-ER, BLEW UP IN THE SIXTH INNING YESTERDAY.

CINCINNATI WON BOTH
IN A DOUBLE HEADER.

TOLEDO AND COLUMBUS EN-GAGED IN A SLUGFEST, THE SENATORS WINNING.

Double headers and hard hitting were the principal features in yesterday's doings in the National and American Leagues and in the American Association. In the former league the Cincinnati Reds fattened their batting averages at the expense of some youngsters whom Roger Bresnahan was giving a try-out on the St. Louis diamond. The Reds played a double header against the Cardinals and won both, scoring twenty-three runs and twenty-eight hits in the two games. The first victory of the onslaught was young Barton, alias Bachman, the college lad whom President Robinson, of the St.
Louis club, purchased from the Portsmouth, Ohio, State League club a few days ago. Bachman was sent in against the Reds at the opening of the first game and he made a very credible showing and will doubtless "make good" with Bresnahan.

He went along for five innings in excellent style, holding the hard hitting Cincinnati lads down without a run, but finally blew up in the sixth and the Reds scored five runs in their half of the round. Another new man went in for the Cardinals in the last part of the first game and five more runs were scored by the Reds before he got settled down to big league work. In the second game, Lush, who was on the firing line for the Cardinals, fared even worse than the youngster had fared in the opening game. The Reds landed on his curves for fifteen hits and thirteen runs.

Another slugfest was engaged in by Toledo and Columbus in the Mud-hen city, Columbus scoring twenty hits and twelve runs, while the Mud Hens landed on Geyer for thirteen hits and eleven runs.

The other results of the day and the standings of the teams were as follows:

SUNDAY, JULY 4, 1909.

A BIRTHDAY THOUGHT.

The Fourth of July. The sacred day of the nation is here again.

While tomorrow will usher in the small boy's celebration, today is worthy of real consideration from mature minds. From the infant babe of the eighteenth century to the strong giant of the twentieth century, we have one common achievement, the descendants of the Boys of '76.

Yet Bunker Hill is as green as memory's calendar as though the battle was yesterday, and we can see Washington crossing the Delaware, the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, and the other revolutionary scenes which are imbedded into the beings of every school youth.

What the country has done for the individual can also be seen in the struggle of the sturdy revolutionists who have been down through the generations, and you have been given your own share. Like the forefather you owe something to your country; to you, state and to your city. The historical motto of the "Home of the Free, and the Land of the Brave," is too often abused.

No one born into this world is born free. He is born with duties to discharge, with obligations to fulfill.

You owe as much to your country as did the revolutionary soldier. It may be a different kind of debt; it may not be paid in as spectacular a manner. But you owe it and should pay it.

The Fourth of July should be just as appropriate a date to make new resolutions as the first calendar day of the year. Over your coffee this morning regard a resolution. Make a resolve that you will in the twentieth century do something which will be as worthy in the days of peace as the call to arms was in the eighteenth century.

Decide first to live as you would die, to spend less than you earn; to have a thought for those who love you. To keep your body that it will be always in condition for the demands upon it. To give the best there is in you to round out the life which has been given you. If you can keep that resolution you will have paid much of your debt.

Judge Martineau says there is no evidence to show that the board of public servers have used fraudulent means in the award of contracts. All of which means that there will be more work for the students of Blackstone.

If there is a negro concealed somewhere about the city hall the public demands that he be brought out, but the conjunction suit aftermath has become a standing joke on the city.

The next day will be full of fun when the water works department finishes the new system.

Either the editor of the morning paper or someone about the city hall should give his order for a suit, and suit.

The best way—that little Johnnie will turn up with a burned finger.

57 Public Square

Charming in every detail was the dancing party given Monday evening at the Auditorium, when Miss L. J. Deibel and Miss Louise Deibel entertained a large number of the younger set for the pleasure of their guests, Miss Gladys Aldermann, of Marietta, Ohio. The spacious Auditorium had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of palms and ferns, forming a pretty setting for the lovely gowns and bright faces of the guests. Costly corners, with many gay cushions, had been arranged and for the three-night dancers, which the program contained, a huge moon had been provided, which shone gleefully down upon the pretty scene. The table in the dining room bore as a center decoration a great bowl of pink carnations and greenery, and here dainty refreshments of ices and cake were served. In one corner of the hall the frappe bowl was placed and this was one of the most popular spots during the evening. Frey's orchestra, hidden by a bank of palms furnished the music for a program of twenty delightful dances. The grand march which began at nine o'clock was led by the honor guest, Miss Aldermann and Mr. Henry Deibel, Jr., about ninety couples being in line. Among the out of town guests in attendance were: Miss Anna Healy and Miss Anita Healy, of Chicago; Miss Margaret Heller, of Deaverdam; Miss Teresa Herold, of Terre Haute, Indiana; Miss Catherine Day, of El Reno, Okla.; Miss Lois Leonard, of Beaver, Pa.; Miss Diebold, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Miss Ruth Goddard, of Springfield; Miss Marie Ruffner, of Marion; Miss Mary Pixley, of Springfield; Mr. Clarence Hancock, of Cleveland; Mr. Judd Caldwell, of Mansfield; Mr. Monroe Amstutz, of Bluffton; Mr. William DeWitt, of Hartford City, Conn.; Mr. Ralph Shaw, of Coffeyville, Kansas; Mr. John Hoff, Mr. Will Hoff, Mr. William Brown, Mr. McGee and Mr. Patterson, of Findlay; Mr. Ralph De Vos, Mr. Fred De Vos, of Dayton; Mr. Warren Wagner, of Ada.

Honoring Miss Mayme Wasson, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seals entertained a number of friends in a very pleasant manner on last Monday evening at their home on north Central street. Eight tables of bridge were arranged in the flower decked rooms, where heavy suckle, sweet peas and roses scented the air and delighted the eye with their beauty. At the conclusion of several exciting rubbers, Mrs. Oliver Steiner received the ladies prize, while Mr. Frank Steiner, holding high score among the gentlemen, also received a pretty prize. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Frank Steiner, Mrs. Ellis Jones, Mrs. S. Seals and Mrs. D. H. Sullivan, served a delicious luncheon of frappe, fruit salad, macaroni, cake and coffee. Out of town guests, enjoying the hospitality of the Seals home were Mrs. Wallick of Toledo and Miss Ganhoff of Tippecanoe City, Indiana.

Miss Mary Duffield entertained six girls at a pleasant little sewing bee on Wednesday afternoon, for the pleasure of her guest, Miss Teresa Herold, of Terre Haute, Indiana. Later in the afternoon, the merry party went to the home of Miss Ellen Spillacy, where a delicious six o'clock dinner in several courses, was served, completing a very pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. F. L. Churchill entertained twenty-four young misses in a most charming manner on Friday afternoon, in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Miss Elnora, the anniversary of whose birth is coincident with that of the nation, but the event was celebrated a few days early. The afternoon was spent in various ways and a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Churchill, assisted by Miss Nita Grindie and Miss Lucile Albright, the guests being seated at small tables each seating six guests. The tables were prettily decorated with summer flowers, and tiny flags served as place cards. The following four courses were served:

Fruit Cocktail
Pressed Veal Creamed Potatoes
Pea Patties Hot Rolls
Pickles Olives
Banana Salad Waters
Cake Coffee
Misses Mabel and Florence Deaver, of Goshen, Indiana who are visiting Miss Churchill, were out of town guests who enjoyed the happy afternoon.

Miss Clea Martin, of St. Johns, is the guest of Miss Edna Hanna, for over the Fourth.

Glenn Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, of Lakewood avenue, is the guest of his parents. Mr. Fletcher is a member of the United States navy, and is at home on a furlough, after an absence of three years, spent in various countries.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Atmure, of 1618 west Wayne street, have issued invitations for a card party on next Wednesday evening.

Dr. E. M. Welly and bride, of Philadelphia, are guests of Dr. Welly's brother, B. F. Welly, and family. Dr. Welly and bride are on their wedding trip, having been married in the Quaker City, last week.

The ladies of the Floral Guild, with their husbands and families, enjoyed a most delightful picnic on last Wednesday afternoon and evening at McCullough Lake. Seventy-five initiators. The reason for this fact five persons were in attendance, and the hours were passed most pleasantly in boating, games and social converse. At six o'clock an elaborate picnic supper was served, to which all did full justice. Various pleasures filled the evening hours, and the affair was in every way a marked success.

The Young Ladies' Aid Society of the Market Street Presbyterian church, was most pleasantly entertained on last Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. B. F. Welly, the large attendance adding greatly to the interest of the meeting. The election of officers for the coming year was held at this time, and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Frank Moley; vice president, Mrs. Guy Willower; secretary and treasurer, Miss Elsie Robinson. The society also voted to pay to the church by the beginning of next year the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars. During the afternoon, Mrs. Welly served a dainty luncheon, in two courses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Whitney were the host and hostess at a six o'clock dinner, given on Wednesday evening, at their home on south McDonough street, to the members of the S. F. Club.

Two long tables were arranged the entire length of the dining room, and the centerpieces were of beautiful pink Killarney roses. Fancy place cards were at each of the twenty-four covers, and a four-course dinner was served at six o'clock, consisting of:

Fried Spring Chicken,
Creamed Potatoes, Creamed Peas,
Bread and Butter Sandwiches, Combination Salad with Mayonnaise,
Olives, Deviled Eggs, Cheese,
Cherry Pie,
Pink and White Cake, Ice Cream,
Iced Tea, Coffee, Mints.

Seated at the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Greese, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mahon, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clutter, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Winegardner, Mr. Long, Mrs. Rayn, Mrs. Bliss, Miss Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Whitney.

A dainty color scheme of pink, in which pink roses and pink sweet peas formed the keynote, was used profusely throughout the house. The evening was well spent, and at a late hour the guests left for their respective homes, all declaring Mr. and Mrs. Whitney royal entertainers.

Miss Deibold, the house guest of Miss Gertrude Finley, returned to her home in Pittsburg the first of last week.

Miss Ursula Parker, of Indianapolis, is the guest of Miss Marie Decker, of Thayer Terrace, south McDonough street.

The Country club dance, the last in this series, was held on Wednesday. The evening perfect in itself, added greatly to the enjoyment of rhythmic waltz and two step. Among the out-of-town guests, were: Mrs. George Pelling, of Schenectady; Miss Anita Healy, of Chicago; Miss Ursula Parker, of Indianapolis; Miss Gladys Aldermann, of Marietta, Ohio; Miss Lois Leonard, of Beaver, Pa.; Miss Welch, of Oxford; Miss Vieta Giffillan, of Columbus; Miss Heath, of Chicago; Miss Mount, of Chatham, Canada; Mr. Robert McHaffey, of New York; and Mr. Joe McHaffey, of West Point.

Miss Lois Leonard returned to her home in Beaver, Pa. last Friday, after a delightful visit of several weeks with Mrs. Don A. Baxter. Miss Edna Leonard made an over-Sunday stay with her sisters en route from Flint, Mich., to Beaver, Pa.

Mrs. E. L. Bates was hostess at a charmingly informal morning bridge on Thursday, in compliment to the visiting guests. Two tables were arranged on the porch and here delightful rubbers were followed by the serving of a dainty luncheon at one, of:

Lettuce and Cheese Sandwiches
Nut Brown Bread
Olives Tea with Mint
Ice Cream, with Rum Sauce
Chocolate Cake Bonbons
Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Bates were Miss Danforth and Miss Minnie Danforth, of Olean; Mrs. Walter Blyven, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Robbins, of Jackson, Ohio; Miss Payne, of Columbus; Mrs. J. C. Lineman, Mrs. J. O. Oiler, Mrs. W. B. Richie and Miss Florence Campbell.

Mrs. Ralph McChesock and little daughter Marjorie, and Miss Modora Freeman are visiting Mrs. David Harlan, in Middletown, Ohio.

Miss Maizie Healy, who landed in New York on Tuesday, after a delightful sojourn abroad, is the guest of Miss Margaret Finley. The Misses Healy return to their home in Chicago on Tuesday.

The long flowing capes, light in texture and easy to slip on, are favorite wraps to wear with summer gown, the crispness of which are ruled by fitted which to choose a cape, and the French designers have revealed the charming new silks brought out this year to American makers, many of the leading models being carried out in domestic weaves.

As the summer heat advances it is very probable that the late swagery French innovation, of carrying one's evening gloves—instead of putting them on in the morning, and many ready imitators. The reason for this fact is to be found in the present craze for finger rings, the jewels often being so large that even very large gloves do not give entire relief. Besides, it is not the mode now to hide one's possessions so that no opportunity to show off costly finger treasures is likely to be neglected. Vogue.

Miss Alice Baccini entertained the M. M. club at her home, 126 east Euclid street, Saturday evening.

The evening was whittled away with many games. Several piano solo selections were rendered by Miss Hazel Henton. At a late hour refreshments were served after which the guests departed.

Those present were: Misses Bernice Fletcher, Nell Pearson, Edna Pearson, Lottie Cooper, Mary Lyte, Minerva Boone, Hazel Henton, Ada Ransbottom, Rosita Selby and Marguerite Hicker; Messrs. Harley Byrd, Barton Camp, Carl Tennor, Harry Hackenberger, Roy Moony, Raymond Robertson, Robert Weaver, Harry Duff, Clarence Gardner, Clarence English and Wayne Johnson.

Thursday evening the girls of the M. M. club met at the home of their secretary, Miss Mary Lyte, 118 Euclid street, and pleasantly surprised her by giving her a miscellaneous shower. Miss Lyte received many beautiful presents. The shower was whittled away in a jolly manner. At the close of the evening ice cream, when Miss Ione Todd, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Todd, delighted her with to Mr. Lloyd H. Howell, of Crawfordville, Indiana. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and roses and was filled with friends of the contracting parties. As the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Mahal Lawrence, echoed through the church, the bridal party approached the altar. The ushers were Carl brother, George Durlinger and Clarence Merrill. The maid of honor, Miss Irene Todd, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids, Clara Stadler, Corinne Heinrich, Edith M. Latham, and Fannie Armstrong, followed the bride in white and carrying white flowers. The bride and groom were escorted by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baum, of this city, who were among the out of town guests present.

On last Monday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClain, of south Atlantic avenue, was the scene of a merry party, when a number of young people gathered to help celebrate the sixteenth birthday of Miss Bessie McClain. The young people enjoyed themselves as only young people can, with various games and contests. In the object contest, Miss Bessie McClain won first prize, while Walter Kerr was second. In the bean, guessing contest, John Fitch was the successful participant, William Rawn being second. At an appropriate hour, dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, which had been made beautiful with a profusion of crimson, rambler roses with foliage and trailing greenery. In the center of the long table was placed a large lamp, surrounded by sixteen candles. After all were seated, the candles were lighted and the lunch was served, consisting of ice cream, lady fingers, nabiscoes, cherries, angel's food cake and devil's food cake. The Misses Florence and Cecil McClain, assisting in the serving. Dainty memory cards were at each place as souvenirs of the happy occasion. After the supper, Mrs. Hollingsworth, an accomplished pianist, gave a number of entertaining selections, both humorous and pathetic. Misses Bessie and Cecil McClain also rendered several good numbers. Both are beginners of great promise. Piano and phonograph numbers were also on the program. Those enjoying the happy affair were Misses Edna Dean, Mabel White, Marie Fitch, Margaret McAfee, Anna Horn, Flora McClain, Bessie McClain, Mrs. Hollingsworth, Grace Hollingsworth, Cecil and Florence McClain, Messrs. Leo Hompck, William Rawn, Walter Kerr, John Fitch, Irvin Best, James Baucker and Harry Schumate.

Other than the club members were Miss Mount, of Chatham, Ont.; Miss Healy and Miss Anita Healy, of Chicago; Mrs. Clyde Butcher, of Dairhart, Texas; Mrs. George Vail, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Charles Lamer, of Chicago.

On Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents in Spencer, the beautiful wedding of Miss Myrtle Tate and Mr. Raymond Baucker. Promptly at eight thirty o'clock the wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Sylvia Att. Little Chiffon Moseley acted as flower bearer, and was followed by little Bessie Tate, who carried the refreshments were served, consisting of ices, cooling drinks, and cakes. The wedding is the culmination of a pretty romance, begun over a year ago, when the groom, with his brother, was seriously injured in a wreck which occurred on the Western Ohio near Sidney. Miss Hale, a skilled nurse, cared for his injuries and the acquaintance began at that time, fast ripened into love. Mr. and Mrs. Cox will reside in Dayton, where the groom holds a responsible position with the National Cash Register Company. The bride has a host of warm friends in her home city, and surrounding towns, where she is known for her splendid nursing and her lovely disposition, and who regret her departure while wishing for her and her husband the best of everything this life affords.

The morning euchre given by Mrs. Frank Campbell on Wednesday, in compliment to Mrs. A. K. Brown, of Chicago, and Mrs. Walter Biven, of Philadelphia and Mrs. J. H. Strong, of Chicago, was one of the successes of the season. Spring flowers in all their radiance decorated the room, where a delicious five-course luncheon was served, being especially beautiful. The guests of Mrs. O'Day were Mrs. O'Shea, Mrs. A. C. Callahan, Mrs. Joseph Callahan, Mrs. Joseph Callahan, Mrs. A. J. Brown, of Wapakoneta.

Miss Anna Baxter arrives this week to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. T. Cuthbert, and will be one of a party formed to enjoy hunting expeditions into northern Ohio, in the fortnight. Compromising the party will be Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Cuthbert, Miss Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Kays.

Mr. Harley Holmes arrived from New York City last Wednesday, to spend several weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Hepburn received a few friends quite informally on Friday evening, the lawn at the rear of the pretty home being fitted with rugs and rustic benches. The moon over head shed a soft radiance which was the despair of the envious Japanese lanterns.

Later a summer shower drove the merry party in doors where music and social chat were followed by the serving of delicious ice cream, cake, dainties and candies.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hepburn were Mrs. and Mrs. P. King, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. King, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. George McArthur, Mrs. Edna Ballard, Miss Hattie Hutchinson and Mrs. Applegate.

Mrs. Paul Argenter welcomed the members of the Monday Bridge Club to her attractive home on Lakewood avenue on Monday afternoon of last week. The rooms were prettily decorated with clusters of roses and pol-ted ferns, and the guests lent themselves to the enjoyment of the game until the late afternoon when the hostess served a delicious tea composed of:

Cold Boiled Ham.
Vegetable Salad with Mayonnaise Sandwiches.
Strawberry Short Cake with Whipped Cream.
Bonbons.
Coffee.

On Wednesday evening at the Shawnee Country Club, Mr. George Glover entertained a number of friends at a delightful six o'clock dinner, as a sort of farewell party, as he is soon to leave the city. The long table in the dining room, was prettily decorated with sweet summer flowers. Covers were laid for fourteen and a splendid menu in four courses was served. The toasts at the conclusion of the dinner were decidedly clever. Mr. Glover's guests were: Miss Edna Deisel, Miss Sherwa Blum, Miss Margaret Finley, Miss Edith Finley, Miss Margaret Colley, Miss Genevieve Robinson, Miss Anita Healy, of Chicago; Mr. Walter Carnes, Mr. Frank Hawkins, Mr. Orin Andrews, Mr. Frank Mitchell, Mr. Thomas Nesmith and Mr. Fred Baxter.

Little Miss Virginia Orr, of Avondale, Cincinnati, will reach the city early in the week to be the guest of Miss Helen Thompson.

Mrs. Amanda Berlein and son Paul have gone to Superior, Wisconsin, where they will visit Mrs. Berlein's brother for some time. They will return to the city about the first of September, coming by the way of Nebraska and Chicago.

Of interest to the many Lima friends of the bride is the announcement of the marriage at Canton, O., last Monday evening of Miss Bessie Hurlburt, of this city, and Mr. Gross, a real estate broker formerly of Texas, now of Beaver Falls, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Gross will travel extensively during the summer, and will take up their permanent home in Beaver Falls in the fall. The wedding comes as a surprise to friends here, but an authentic extending best wishes.

Mr. Henry Wenner and family left Saturday, by auto, for a trip through northern Ohio, and will spend the Fourth at Cedar Point.

The first of the series of summer dances to be given by the Aurora Dancing Club, was held at Mellich Park on Thursday evening, and was in every way a most enjoyable affair. The members and their friends, seventy couples in all, were conveyed to the park in a special car. The pavilion had been tastefully decorated, the walls being entirely covered with great branches of oak, and draped with flags, bunting and gay pennants. Music for a long program of delightful dances was furnished by the Rothschlager orchestra, and delicious punch was served throughout the evening. The officers, who are J. H. Allright, President; Walter Pettie, vice president; Clarence Miller, treasurer; and Isaac East, secretary, are deserving of much credit for the great success of this first dance of the summer season. These dances will be held at Mellich Park every two weeks during the summer, and the members and friends of this popular dancing club are looking forward to many happy evenings.

Miss Anna Praxler, of Dayton, and Miss Sarah Praxler, of Cleveland, will be guests over the Fourth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hershey, of north McDonald street.

Mrs. Joseph Wright and three children, of Franklin, Indiana, are visiting Mr. Wright, over the Fourth.

Mr. Henry Deisel and family left Saturday for an automobile trip to Cedar Point, where they will spend the Fourth.

On Friday afternoon, the ladies of the Uneda Rest Club, carrying well filled baskets, wended their way to Hoover Park, where they held an important business session. Officers for the ensuing year were elected, the following ladies being chosen to direct the affairs of the club for the next twelve months: President, Mrs. Blawie; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ransbottom; social secretary, Mrs. J. C. Ring. The organization completed, five new members were received into the club, thus bringing the membership up to twenty. Last night in the afternoon the families of the ladies appeared, and a most delicious picnic supper was served. The evening was spent in dancing, rowing and the various amusements attended by the guests. The next morning the club, which will continue in two weeks, will be held at the home of Mrs. Volkmann.

Miss Rose Tabler, at her home on North Charles street, very delightfully entertained the members of her music class on last Thursday afternoon. A fine program was rendered by the young people, and the remainder of the afternoon spent in merry and games. Late in the afternoon Miss Tabler served a dainty lunch, consisting of:

- Hain Sandwiches,
- Potato Salad,
- Olives,
- Ice Cream,
- Cake,
- Candy.

Those who enjoyed the pleasant afternoon were: Eva Alligier, Carolyn Miller, Lenore East, Nova East, Mary Herring, Vivian Herring, Elvander, Elizabeth Taylor, Golia Lehman, Grace Busie, Lottie Springer, Ella Zurluh, Nina Goodwin, Cecil Brandon, Gladys Chapman, Iris Hohl, Edna Dinkle, Marjorie Courtney, Edna Cook, Lela Berndt, Esther Roach, Gladys Roach, Vera Graff, Clara Graff, Ruth Lego, Mildred Keller, Lottie Kise, Mildred Riss, Mildred Wingate, Edna Conrad, Lilian Conrad, Don Copeland and Lester Alligier.

The Golden Eagle Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. French, West Kibby street, on Wednesday evening, July 7.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of Zion Lutheran church, will meet on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. H. Petter, 716 North Jackson avenue.

As a surprise to the many Lima friends of the bride, comes the announcement of the wedding of Miss Minnie Hoffman, of this city, and Mr. C. H. Lowe, of Cleveland, which occurred in the latter city, three weeks ago. At that time Miss Hoffman went to Cleveland, presumably to visit friends, and the ceremony, which was quietly performed in the Forest City, was kept secret from friends here. However, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe are at the bride's home to spend the fourth, and the secret is out. Mrs. Lowe is a charming girl, who has a host of firm friends in this city, and her husband is an iron worker, and a young man of excellent qualities. Congratulations and best wishes are being extended to both young people.

The members of the class of 1903 of St. Rose High school, entertained this year's class in a most charming manner at the home of Miss Mayme Munaghan, north Union street, on Wednesday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with gay streamers of the lavender and white of '03 and the lavender and gold of '09, the dainty colors blending most artistically. Progressive Pedro was

RAVENNA

May Soon Become the Home of Rev. Swanson.

RECEIVED A NUMBER OF COMMUNICATIONS FROM PARISHES.

REPORT THAT HE HAS ACCEPTED IS NOT TRUE.

BUT HE IS SERIOUSLY CONSIDERING THE EXCELLENT PROPOSITION.

Rev. J. J. Swanson, D. D., pastor of the First Congregational church of south Elizabeth street for the past 13 years may not come to far distant date leave this city to take up a pastorate at Ravenna, Ohio. Rev. Swanson has received a most excellent offer from the city in the eastern part of the state, but in an interview with the News last night said that he had not accepted it yet.

Dispatches from Ravenna told the story last night of the acceptance of the pastorate there by Rev. Swanson, yet he stoutly denies it. When questioned by the News said "I have not accepted such a pastorate yet, although I have received several communications from Ravenna, as well as other places." "I would rather that you would not say anything about the matter at the present time. It is quite premature."

Rev. Swanson is a graduate of McGill University, Montreal, and Chicago University. He has made many friends here who would be sorry to hear of his departure.

It is quite evident judging by the tone of the dispatches that the name of Rev. Swanson was confused with that of Rev. Swanson, as it was published several days ago that Rev. Swanson was invited to accept a pastorate at Ravenna.

STACK-UP

Of Six Cars in a Freight Wreck at Village of Hume.

GAVE THE LAKE ERIE & WESTERN WRECK CREW A FEW HOURS' WORK.

NO ONE WAS INJURED BY REASON OF CRASH.

BIG TIMBER CONTRACT AWARDED BY THE L. E. & W.—OTHER RAIL NOTES.

As east bound through freight train of the Lake Erie & Western railroad was pulling through Hume at a good rate of speed Friday afternoon, a box car suddenly left the rails from some unknown cause and before the bursting of the air hose the boxcar and the freight cars were derailed and considerably wrecked. Fortunately no one was injured in the smash-up. Conductor Duggan of this city, who was in charge of the train, reported the accident to the train dispatchers here and a wreck train and crew were hurried to the scene. The tracks were cleared and repaired in a short time and no serious delay to traffic resulted from the accident.

After Tourist Travel. The Eastern and Western railroads are going after the summer tourist travel this year with more determination than former years, after the western railroads had placed cheap rates to almost every state west of the Mississippi River, the eastern lines held a meeting and following a notice from the Erie that they would put an excursion rate in effect to New York City in the month of July, all the eastern roads agreed to sell tourist tickets to New York, Boston, Niagara Falls, Atlantic City, Norfolk, Old Point Comfort, White Mountains, the Adirondacks, the Catskill Mountains, Chautauque Lake and almost every city and resort east of the Allegheny Mountains. This action of eastern lines has brought about a great campaign of advertising in the papers of Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati and it is apparent that the eastern lines do not intend the western roads to secure all of the tourist travel this year.

This is the second nocturnal visitor Mr. Davidson has had on such an errand within a short time.

REVENGE

SECTED BY YALE FOR HER TRIPLE RECENT DEFEAT.

TEN INNING GAME YESTERDAY RESULTED IN FAVOR OF OLD ELI'S SONS.

New York, July 3.—Yale got revenge for her triple defeat at New London, when her base ball team met and vanquished Harvard at the Polo grounds this afternoon in the third and deciding game for inter-collegiate College championship. With the score standing at 2 to 2 at the end of the ninth inning, the sons of Old Eli came to the bat in the tenth and put three runs across the plate, leaving Harvard in the lurch. It was Van Vleck, who really won the game for Yale. It was his hit that brought Murphy home in the sixth with Yale's first run and it was his home run that tied the score in the tenth, but Hicks was afraid he would get his fifth successive hit and pitched him four of the wildest balls a pitcher ever threw for a batter and Van Vleck had to walk. Each team used two pitchers. Yale started with Merritt, sending Van Vleck to right field. Harvard began the game with Hartford in the box but finished with Hicks.

The Score: R H E Yale 5 9 0 Harvard 2 12 4 Batteries: Van Vleck, Merritt and Philbin; Hartford, Hicks and Currier.

COOKED

MEAT FOR HIMSELF AFTER HE HAD ROBBED THE HOUSE.

WIFE OF PROMINENT PITTSBURG CONTRACTOR VICTIM OF ROBBERY.

By Hearst News Service. Pittsburgh, Pa., July 3.—Mrs. Emma Bruce, wife of William Bruce, a prominent Pittsburgh contractor, was attacked at the residence of the family, in Walker's Mills, 11 miles west of this city, today. Mrs. Bruce is in a delicate condition as a result of the attack.

It was but a few minutes after her husband left the house to take a train for Pittsburgh, when Mrs. Bruce was attacked by a robber, brutally beaten, bound and gagged. It is not believed the man secured anything of value in the house.

The robber after committing the deed, coolly cooked himself a meal of ham and eggs, and enjoyed himself at a table in the kitchen for a half hour or more. While the meal was cooking he looted the house, then returned to the kitchen where he ate the meal and made good his escape.

Mrs. Bruce recovered rapidly after releasing herself from the bonds which held her. She then called to neighbors and a posse was soon formed to trail the man.

BURNING

OF PRIEST'S COTTAGE ATTRACTED SOME OF HIS NEIGHBORS.

AND AS THEY HEARD THE SCENE THEY HEARD THE REPORT OF THE FATAL SHOT FIRED.

Special to the Sunday News. Denham Springs, La., July 3.—News has just reached here from a French settlement 23 miles south of here, of the sensational suicide of Father A. Seve, the rector of the Catholic church there, Friday.

Neighbors discovered the cottage occupied by the priest, adjoining St. Joseph's Church, on fire and went to the rescue. Before they reached the building a shot was heard.

The fire was burning briskly in the bedroom occupied by the priest and it was extinguished after a hard fight. The priest was found dead in bed with a bullet hole through his head and a pistol in his hand.

Those who know him declare that his mind had become unbalanced. He had been acting strangely of late. He left no statement.

ELKDOM

Of Lima Will Be Represented By Dr. D. H. Sullivan.

WHO GOES TO LOS ANGELES TO ATTEND GRAND LODGE MEETING THIS WEEK.

GOES ON SPECIAL TRAIN WITH COLUMBUS LODGE.

CEAR POINT EXCURSION COMMITTEE READY FOR THE STATE MEETING.

Dr. D. H. Sullivan, one of the popular past exalted rulers of Lima lodge No. 54, B. P. O. Elks, will be the official representative of Lima lodge in the grand lodge session of the order, which will be under way next week, in the city of Los Angeles. He will make the trip on a special train, which will be run by Columbus lodge and will be absent from this city for about three weeks. With the Columbus Elks, he will take in a number of side trips which will be made from Los Angeles, and will make the return trip east via Seattle, Washington.

It is the custom of all lodges of Elks to send their exalted rulers to the grand lodge sessions, and Exalted Ruler H. O. Bentley would have been the delegate from Lima lodge this year, but is prevented from making the trip on account of business engagements, and Dr. Sullivan, the past exalted ruler, who was elected alternate delegate, has accepted the responsibility and will leave with the Columbus delegation Monday night. The trip comes at an opportune time for Mr. Sullivan, who recently suffered a severe injury to one of his thumbs, and the trip will afford an opportunity to give the injured member needed rest.

The members of the committee of Lima lodge of Elks, who are in charge of arrangements for the annual excursion of this lodge to Cedar Point to the session of the State Association have about completed their preliminary work and the excursion this year as usual promises to be a big success. The members of the committee expect to have about four hundred members of the lodge in line for the big street parade in this city and in Sandusky on the big day of the state meeting and they will all boost for the election of Lima lodge's candidate for president of the State Association, Exalted Ruler H. O. Bentley, one of the most popular Elks in the state of Ohio, and the man who has, more than any one individual made Lima lodge the foremost lodge in the great Buckeye state.

Information from over the state indicates that Exalted Ruler Bentley will have no opposition for the office of state president of the Ohio Association this year. And the loyal Lima members of the order who will go to Cedar Point on the special train which will be run on August 26, will return home proud and happy if he is elevated to the state presidency for which they have made him a candidate.

Elkdom is indebted to retiring Grand Exalted Ruler Rush L. Holman for an administration lofty in its aims and successful in its results. The high and progressive ideas of his predecessors were not for a single moment lost sight of and under his guiding hand the march of Elkdom has been onward and upward and the bonds of a great brotherhood made stronger. Another Grand Exalted Ruler returning to the ranks you carry with you the sincerest congratulations of three hundred thousand good and true Elks for your successful administration of the affairs of the Order; you also carry with you the highest admiration and love of each and every member of the Order for your uniform kindness of character and true exemplification of brotherly love and good fellowship.

The contest for the Grand Exalted Rulership of Elkdom between Bro. August Herrmann of Cincinnati, and Bro. J. J. Diamond of Le Mars, Ia., is practically over and little remains but to cast and count the votes. A careful canvass of the situation leaves no room for doubt as to what the result will be. Bro. August Herrmann will be chosen by a decisive majority. The contest on behalf of Bro. Herrmann has been mainly dignified and in consonance with strict fraternal propriety. All arguments and claims advanced for Bro. Herrmann were as to his eminent fitness for the position, his nearly a quarter of a century of true devotion to Elkdom, his rare executive ability, his keen business judgment and his genuinely true Elk spirit and grandness of character.

TWO BINGS

OF USELESS ORDER CAUSE DEPARTURE A RUN.

At 5:15 last evening, a young man, box 45, called the South Side fire department to the home of Peter D. Ser, 955 South Breese avenue, where it was found a chicken shed was burning. The damage was very slight, members of the family sending in the call, fearing the blaze would spread to other buildings nearby.

At 8:15 last night an alarm sounded from Box 415 called the South Side department to 519 South Pine street to the home of Isaac Stants. A lamp exploded and startled the women of the family so badly that they threw it outside. There was no damage, and a useless run of the department was all that told the story.

Come in and select your fireworks early and have us lay them away for you. Schell's Book Store. We'll suit.

Hyperopia of the Eye

Means, plainly put, "far sighted," and while many are thus afflicted, few really know the harm of allowing this condition of the eyes to remain unchanged!

Hyperopia due to an error of refraction is divided into three classes and which can only be determined by having the eyes examined by one having a knowledge of the eye.

If you are far sighted, visit our Optical Department today for Glasses to overcome the error of refraction.
